

Ash Wednesday

Remember you are dust and unto dust you shall return

Ash Wednesday

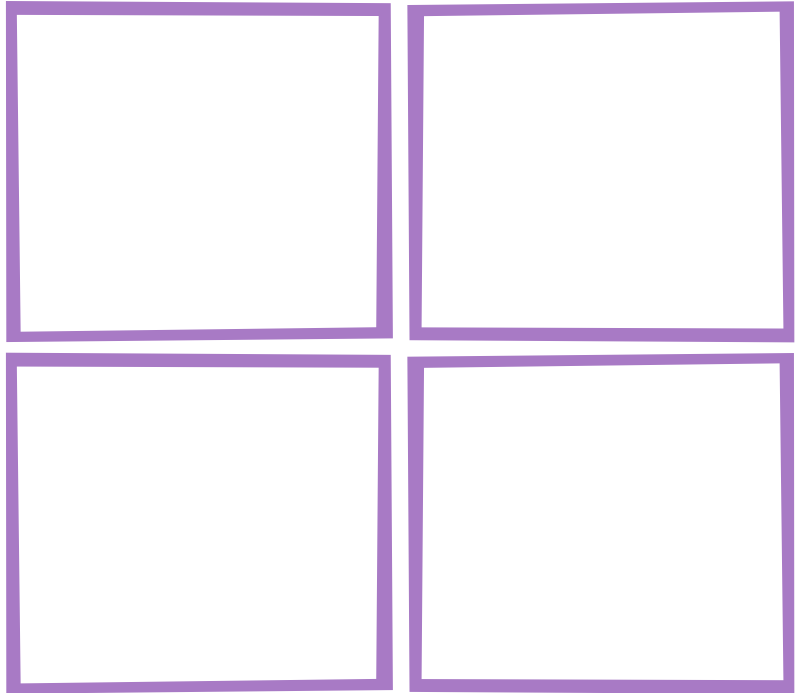

Place a cross next to the answers that best complete the following sentence:

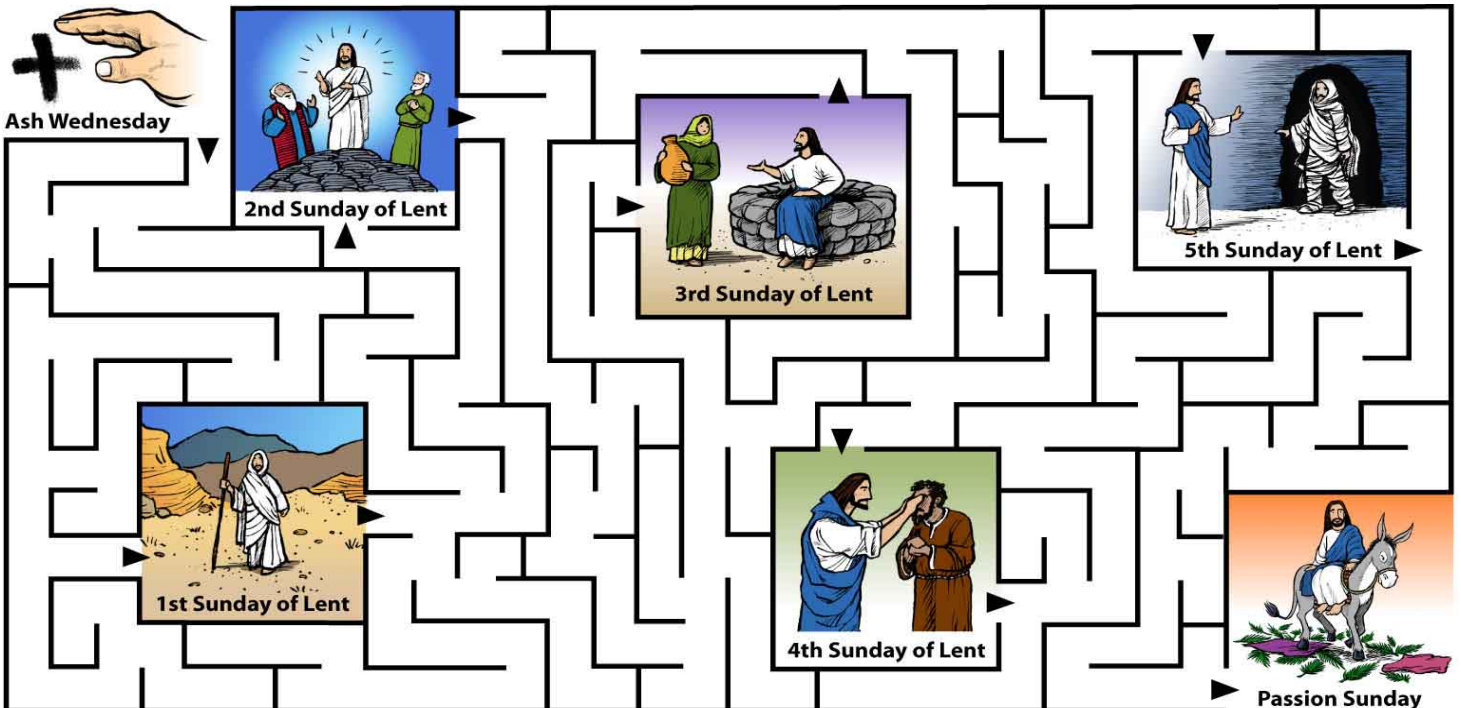

Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of the season of Lent. Write or draw some of the things we are asked to do to help us prepare for this special time of year.

On Ash Wednesday we mark our forehead with a cross made of ashes as a reminder of ...

- ... the kingship of Christ.
- ... our own mortality.
- ... Christ's sacrifice for our sins.
- ... the celebration of new life.
- ... the persecution of the early Christians.
- ... our sorrow for our sins.
- ... our belonging to Christ.

Follow the maze through the five weeks of Lent, starting at Ash Wednesday and finishing at Passion Sunday

Ash Wednesday

Remember you are dust and unto dust you shall return

Ash Wednesday

Place a cross next to the answers that best complete the following sentence:

On Ash Wednesday we mark our forehead with a cross made of ashes as a reminder of ...

- ... the kingship of Christ.
- ... our own mortality.
- ... Christ's sacrifice for our sins.
- ... the celebration of new life.
- ... the persecution of the early Christians.
- ... our sorrow for our sins.
- ... our belonging to Christ.

Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of the season of Lent. Write or draw some of the things we are asked to do to help us prepare for this special time of year.

Follow the maze through the five weeks of Lent, starting at Ash Wednesday and finishing at Passion Sunday

Ash Wednesday

2nd Sunday of Lent

3rd Sunday of Lent

4th Sunday of Lent

5th Sunday of Lent

1st Sunday of Lent

Passion Sunday

Solutions

Ash Wednesday

Follow the maze through the five weeks of Lent, starting at Ash Wednesday and finishing at Passion Sunday

