The Sunday Gospels shown here for each week are the ones to be read at Mass the following Sunday. By incorporating the Gospel in our school prayer, we hope to better prepare the students to participate in the Sunday Mass.

WS Prayer format:

*Gospel text focus: Print a visual for classrooms. read the full Gospel if appropriate (children's version if possible) one day to give the story context, focus on parts of the text other days. Or choose another Gospel/Bible story on the same theme/ quality shown by Jesus Use visuals to assist understanding of the story. Pictures/appropriate videos/songs and actions/movements/puppets/role-plays

*Formal Prayer: Focus on a formal prayer for the week. Display words and focus on some each day. Use good literacy strategies to facilitate student understanding. Read and repeat/ parts for classes/ actions/ chant/ echo prayer

*Informal Prayer: involve the children in praying, relating to Gospel theme if possible. Use theme to make Prayers of the Faithful/ Prayer litanies/ penitential rites

Prayer space and time: create atmosphere of gathering and sacred space: class prayer table/ focus objects or pictures/candle/readiness-centring.

Easy-to-Read Version (ERV)

God Will Answer His People

18 Then Jesus taught the followers that they should always pray and never lose hope. He used this story to teach them: ² “Once there was a judge in a town. He did not care about God. He also did not care what people thought about him. ³ In that same town there was a woman whose husband had died. She came many times to this judge and said, ‘There is a man who is doing bad things to me. Give me my rights!’ ⁴ But the judge did not want to help the woman. After a long time, the judge thought to himself, ‘I don’t care about God. And I don’t care about what people think. ⁵ But this woman is bothering me. If I give her what she wants, then she will leave me alone. But if I don’t give her what she wants, she will bother me until I am sick.’”

⁶ The Lord said, “Listen, there is meaning in what the bad judge said. ⁷ God’s people shout to him night and day, and he will always give them what is right. He will not be slow to answer them. ⁸ I tell you, God will help his people quickly. But when the Son of Man comes again, will he find people on earth who believe in him?”

I tell you, God will help his people quickly.
But when the Son of Man comes again, will he find people on earth who believe in him?”

We will be here!
